PROPOSED

Florida Atlantic University

Regulation 1.005

Public Information and Inspection of Records

All records of the University are open for public access during normal office hours through the respective records custodian, except records excluded, exempted or designated as limited-access records by law or University regulation. All records that are permitted to be designated limited-access records by law are hereby designated as such. The University President is the records custodian over all University records. The President may designate co-records custodians at his/her discretion. These designees include, but are not limited to (1) the Vice President for Financial Affairs for Fiscal and Business Records; and (2) the Director of Human Resources for Personnel Records. ~~Persons qualified by law or agency rule may examine student records through the office of the Registrar and may examine personnel records through the office of the Director of Personnel. Fiscal and business records are available through the office of the Vice President for Administrative Affairs.~~ Copies of public records may be procured upon payment in advance of such costs of reproduction as may be provided by law.
