Regulation 5.009 Grievance Procedure

(1) GRIEVANCE POLICY STATEMENT

(a) Florida Atlantic University encourages a pro-active, collegial work environment in which employees have the opportunity to discuss and resolve work related concerns with the appropriate supervisor. In those cases where an employee has an unresolved dispute concerning that employee's terms or conditions of employment, the employee may choose to file a grievance. The purpose of this Regulation is to set out a procedure for the investigation and resolution of grievances filed by instructional and research faculty; administrative, managerial and professional staff; and support personnel employees, at Florida Atlantic University who are not subject to the terms of collective bargaining agreements.

(b) Job-related problems should be resolved, whenever possible, before the filing of a grievance. Open communication and informal resolution the satisfaction of both parties. The Step One Representative shall notify the grievant in writing of the decision.

2. Step Two – If the grievant is not satisfied with the Step One decision, the grievant may request in writing that the grievance proceed to Step Two. This request must be made within 7 days of the date of the Step One decision. The Step Two Representative shall be the appropriate Vice President or Associate Provost or their designee. The Step Two Representative shall schedule a conference, to be held within ~~7~~10 days of the written request, with the grievant, and any other persons believed to be necessary to the equitable settlement of the grievance. The Step Two Representative will endeavor to settle the dispute and will notify the grievant of the Step Two decision in writing within 7 days of the conference. The Step Two decision is final and binding upon the parties.

3. Submit rebuttal evidence.
4. Be represented by counsel.

The President or the President's designee shall issue a decision within 15 days of the conclusion of the hearing, which shall be final and binding.

(d) The employee may submit a written statement to be placed in his/her personnel file at the conclusion of the grievance process and is entitled to all other rights provided by applicable law.

Regulation 5.012 Employee Standards And Disciplinary Procedures

(1) Scope and Authority. This Regulation applies to all instructional and research faculty and administrative, managerial and professional staff, not covered by a collective bargaining agreement; and all support personnel employees.

(a) The authority to discipline employees is vested in the University President. The President has delegated this authority as follows:

1. To the Provost, Vice President or their designee, to whom the employee reports, for suspensions and terminations.
2. To the Dean, Director or higher level immediate supervisor, for all other disciplinary actions.

(2) Standards of Conduct. The following standards are required for all employees. Departure from these standards by an employee will constitute offenses and will result in disciplinary action being taken:

(a) Employees shall respect the rights of others

(b) Employees shall exhibit a level of behavior supporting the mission, purposes and best interests of the University

(c) Employees shall perform assigned duties in an orderly, efficient and effective manner

(d) Employees shall adhere to all University regulations, policies and directives

(3) Disciplinary Procedures. Employees who intentionally act to impair, interfere with, or obstruct the mission, purposes, order, academic atmosphere, operations, processes, and functions of Florida Atlantic University shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action by University authorities. This includes incompetence in the performance of job duties, and misconduct.

(a) Counseling. Except for offenses which require that immediate disciplinary action be taken, employees will receive counseling and will be given an opportunity to comply with the supervisor's instructions before disciplinary action is taken. Counseling shall be constructive and done with the primary purpose of helping the employee correct a problem.

(b) Just Cause

1. Procedure: Disciplinary action shall be taken only for just cause. The disciplining authority shall review alleged offenses to determine:

a. Notice - Whether the employee knew or should have known that the behavior is not acceptable.

b. Job-related offenses - Whether the offense occurred while the employee was at work or is job-related. If offense occurs while the employee is off duty and away from the job, any disciplinary action taken must be preceded by a decision, supported by facts, that the offense adversely affects the employee's ability to perform assigned duties, or the University's ability to carry out its mission and purposes.

c. Proof of Misconduct – Whether the alleged offense has been investigated objectively and the investigation has established a reasonable belief that the University's standards of conduct have been violated.

d. Past Practice – Whether the proposed discipline is consistent with past treatment of employees who have committed similar offenses.

e. Appropriateness of Discipline – Whether the severity of the proposed discipline is reasonably related to the seriousness of the offense and the employee's past record of work performance, conduct, and discipline.

(c) Types of Disciplinary Action. The following types of disciplinary actions shall be administered in accordance with this Regulation:

1. Reprimand (oral and/or written)
2. Suspension
3. Discharge

(d) Probationary Employees. Probationary employees may be disciplined without a right of appeal and are subject to dismissal for any single offense or for failure to meet required performance levels during the probationary period.

(e) Guidelines for Disciplinary Action.

1. The employee shall be given written notice of any disciplinary action.
2. The notice shall state the reason for the disciplinary action.
3. A copy of the notice shall be retained in the employee's personnel file.

(4) Standards for Disciplinary Action. The appropriate level and severity of disciplinary action, based on progressive discipline and ranging from oral reprimand to termination, shall be determined in each individual case, by following the guidelines of just cause. The following list of unacceptable conduct, further defined as incompetence or misconduct, is in violation of the University's Standards of Conduct, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) Substandard, incompetent, unprofessional or incomplete performance of any responsibility or assigned duty;

(b) Insubordination- A deliberate and inexcusable refusal or failure to obey a reasonable order given by the supervisor or other authorized University personnel in the performance of their official duties. Such orders may include orders given by authorized University Administrators or University Police to vacate campus premises;

(c) Excessive tardiness, or a pattern of tardiness;

(d) Excessive absences, or a pattern of absences;

(e) Absence without authorization - Failure to obtain approval prior to any absence from work, to notify or call the appropriate supervisor or the supervisor's designee on the first day of an absence or obtaining leave based upon a misrepresentation or falsification. Includes unauthorized absence from the work area;

(f) Loafing - Continued and deliberate idleness during working hours which results in the employee's failure to perform assigned duties;

(g) Sleeping on duty;

(h) Falsification of records - The willful and deliberate misrepresentation, falsification or omission of any fact whether verbal, written, or communicated in some other medium;

(i) Unauthorized use of University property, equipment or personnel;

(j) Improper or careless use or operation of State property or equipment;

(k) Misuse or duplication of any University key;

(l) Unauthorized distribution and solicitation;

(m) Horseplay - Actions which disrupt or have the effect of disrupting the work of the participants or other employees;

(n) Fighting - Any form of violence, or threat of violence to others or against one's self;

(o) Threatening or abusive language;

(p) Illegal possession, sale, distribution or misuse of alcohol, drugs and other controlled substances, including drinking on the job, and/or reporting to work impaired under the influence of alcohol or drugs;

(q) Theft, conversion, misuse, damage or destruction of University property or of the property of members of the University community;

(r) Sabotage - Participation in an act of destruction or attempted destruction of University property or equipment;

(s) Conviction of a crime - The conviction of an employee of a crime, which would adversely affect the employee's ability or availability to perform the duties of the job, or the University's ability to carry out its mission;

(t) Violation of safety practices;

(oo) Violation of State or Federal law or University Regulations or Policies; and

(pp) Violation of University Police General Orders.

(5) Suspensions and Terminations

~~(a)~~ The appointment of an employee may be suspended or terminated for cause. Employees shall be given written notice of the suspension or termination by the President, Provost, Senior Vice President or the Vice President to whom the employee reports. -The notice shall state the reason for the suspension or termination. During the period following notice, the employee may be reassigned at the discretion of the President, Provost, Senior Vice President or Vice President to whom the employee reports or be placed on Administrative Leave with Pay.

(6) Administrative Leave pending investigation. The President or Vice President for Finance or designee may immediately suspend an employee from the performance of duties with or without pay when the employee is under investigation by the University for violation of the University's Standards of Conduct, or when the President, Provost, Senior Vice President or Vice President to whom the employee reports has reason to believe that the employee's presence on the job would adversely affect the functioning of the employee's office or the University, or jeopardize the safety or welfare of other employees, colleagues, or students. Administrative Leave may be with or without pay, pending final administrative action. Within two work days, excluding weekends and official holidays, the President or Vice President for Finance shall serve written notice upon the employee including a statement of the reasons for any action taken. If the employee has been placed on Administrative Leave without pay and ultimately prevails in the grievance procedure, the employee shall be reinstated with back pay.

(7) Notification. Notices given under this Regulation shall be hand-delivered or sent "return receipt requested" to the employee's address of record with the University. It is the duty of employees to keep current their address of record by notification to the University's Department of ~~Personnel Services~~Human Resources.

(8) This Regulation shall apply to acts conducted on or off campus when relevant to the orderly conduct, processes and functions of the University.
