Date: June 1, 2015

REGULATION TITLE AND NUMBER: Construction Projects & Property Responsibility (6.006).

SUMMARY: FAU Regulation 6.006 currently address the responsibility and authority for University property. The proposed amendments update the regulation to reflect current organizational titles and add a provision regarding responsibility and authority for University construction projects. The BOG regulation amendments parallel the requirements of Section 1013.38, Florida Statutes, which provides that University Boards ensure that facilities comply with building and life safety codes.
