Florida Atlantic University

Regulation 7.001 Equal Employment Opportunity - Affirmative Action.

(1) The University shall promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to federal and state laws against discrimination. The University shall not discriminate in offering access to its educational programs and activities, or with respect to employment terms and conditions, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, veteran status, or any legally protected class or basis. This commitment applies to the University's relationships with outside organizations, including the federal government, the military, ROTC, and private employers, only to the extent of state and federal requirements. Disparate treatment on the basis of a class not protected by federal or state law shall not constitute discrimination if such disparate treatment is required by federal or state law.

(2) The University, in affirming equal opportunity practices, is committed to maintaining an affirmative action plan as required of all federal contractors. For further information about that plan, contact the University's Office of Equal Opportunity Programs.

~~(1) The following policy for the State University System was adopted by the Board of Regents on December 8, 1974: "The State University System believes in equal opportunity practices which conform to both the spirit and the letter of all laws against discrimination and is committed to non-discrimination because of race, creed, color, sex or national origin. This commitment applies in all areas with students, faculty and other personnel. It is also relevant to those aspects of the University System concerned with the choice of contractors, suppliers of goods and services, and to the use of facilities. The State University System through its education and precept, strives for a society in which opportunity is equalized and supports the development of skills and opportunities of the members of all groups so they may play responsible and productive roles in society." Florida Atlantic University is totally committed to the implementation of both the direction and spirit of this policy. That commitment applies to all personnel actions effected at this institution. Affirmative Actions will be taken, as appropriate in order to implement this policy.~~

~~(3) Faculty and administrative and professional personnel actions will be based on merit, qualification, and demonstrated performance and ability, and will evidence no negative impact based on considerations of race, creed, color, sex, age, marital status or national origin, political affiliations, veteran status, or physical or mental handicap— provided such handicap, with reasonable accommodation, does not prevent satisfactory work performance. Affirmative action in the attainment of established goals with respect to appointment, the equalization of salaries, and promotion will be a consideration in each personnel action. When a position becomes vacant in Faculty, or Administrative and Professional, and selected University Support Personnel System classifications, these positions will be open to outside recruitment. Recruitment efforts will be directed at securing applications from qualified minority and female applicants. Qualified internal~~
